COASTING

America is coasting. It is drifting along out of gear. There is no national policy, no direction, no leadership.

Everyone is holding his breath. What comes next? Is this the calm before the storm? Is it a mere brief leveling-off place in a long upward climb? Is it the start of a slow "deep-freeze" depression?

Who can plan, when nobody knows what is ahead?

President Truman can command, but he cannot lead; he can order, but he does not inspire.

For the time, his program has bogged down. His own party membership has cut the ground out from under it. The Democrats have the votes in Congress. They have refused to use them to support "their" President.

This is just as well. The program was ruinous. Great segments of the population, and large, important geographic areas, bitterly opposed parts of it. Seething rebellion against much of his proposals would have occurred farther down the line, even if the Democrats in Congress had decided to give Mr. Truman what he asked.

President Truman took his campaign too seriously, the election not seriously enough. For strategy purposes, last year, he undercut the radical wing of his party by stealing Wallace's thunder. Because he "ran against Congress," because he dangled vote-bait before selfish groups, and won, he missed the point of the election figures.

Only one voter out of every four in America took the President and his promises seriously enough to come out and support him on election day.

Seventy-five percent of the American population was either openly opposed to the Truman schemes, or too uneasy about them to vote for them, or quite indifferent to the issues he raised.

Again and again, fate has offered Harry Truman the greatest chances in history to reveal statesmanship. He could, for instance, on first coming to office, have forced a showdown on all the deals, secrecy and weaknesses in the post-war peace arrangements. Thereby he might have turned tragic chaos into workability. But he missed the boat.

Over and again the stage has been set for President Truman to adopt a moderate middle-course in national affairs, to reconcile opposing political wings, to meet Congress half-way, and thereby to break a deadlock in Federal Government, between White House and Capitol Hill, which is now entering its fourth year.

The significant group in last year's election wasn't the 25 per cent who voted for Truman, nor the 25 per cent who split their votes three ways against him—but the 50 per cent who stayed home.

What does this half-of-a-nation, who yoiced no opinion last year, want of their national government?

That is the question Mr. Truman might better have asked himself, than demanding by what species of cleverness, pressure and patronage he could keep promises that should never have been made, on behalf of greedy minority groups which need harnessing more than favoritism.

Obviously, the silent half doesn't want Socialism. They weren't tempted by the Socialist promises of various candidates last year to the point of coming to the polls. It is their pressure on individual Congressmen which has put backbone into the fight against such Truman schemes as return to the Wagner Act, nationalized housing, Federalized schools, socialized medicine, government take-over of industry.

Disregarding this half-of-a-nation which was too disinterested in Mr. Truman's campaign to vote either for it or against it, the President has fussed and fumed for six months and got precisely nowhere. The only really significant bill passed this year was that of the closing days of the former Congress—the President's salary-raiser which makes him, in take-home pay and perquisites, one of the highest-income men in the world.

But the labor issue hasn't been solved, the trade and tariff issues haven't been answered, school and housing are still up in the air, civil rights questions lie dormant, the "unified" military services are as demoralized as ever, the Atlantic Pact simmers uneasily on the back of the stove, and the real "toughie" of the year—whether to arm Europe or not—may never come up in Congress this season.

The lack of leadership in national policy is conspicuous. Plans are made and countermanded. New policies are announced and promptly discarded. No one can say with assurance where we stand with reference to inflation, to national credit, to jobs and "made-work," towards Russia, on the future policy towards China and Japan—nor, for that matter, on almost any important question you can think of.

Leadership is just as lacking elsewhere. In Congress, many speak—but few are followed; No single figure has risen to tower above the rest—to become a rallying point for a majority coalition.

Outside Congress, who speaks with authority and conviction? Labor's "leaders" are frantically waiting for straws in the wind to tell them which way to swing. Industry has produced no present economic or political spokesman to call the turn. Business is getting in the hay while the sun still shines—and readying up the storm cellars!

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

All four occupying powers are in Berlin as a matter of right, and the United States intends to stay there, Secretary Acheson declared in the Foreign Ministers' Council yesterday. Discussion of the Berlin problem soon foundered on Russia's insistence upon the full veto in the four-power Kommandatura. Mr. Acheson suggested limiting the veto to military and security measures. Berlin rail strikers will vote today on resuming traffic between that city and the Western zones. The referendum is on a proposal to receive 60% of their wages in Western marks.

Regardless of what decision the Big Four may reach on Germany, a "united and secure world" will not return until the Germans, with our help, become truly democratic and Germany is brought again into Europe's economy, General Clay said. Receiving an honorary degree from Columbia University he warned that the struggle between collectivism and democracy would continue "for years to come." General Eisenhower, officiating as president of Columbia, issued a similar warning.

Despite these tensions, President Truman said "we are closer to world peace now than at any time in the last three years," and Winston Churchill felt a "growing hope" that a new war could be avoided.

The United States and Britain invoked the human rights and freedom clauses of the Bulgarian, Hungarian and Rumanian peace treaties after protests against abridgement of those guarantees had brought unsatisfactory replies.

Britain announced recognition of a government of Cyrenaica, headed by the spiritual and temporal leader of the Senussis but retained control over external affairs until the United Nations disposed of Italy's former colonies.

Internationalization of the whole Jerusalem area is favored by Britain.

The House, 365 to 27, passed a bill providing $72 monthly pensions for veterans reaching 65 years of age who have no private income of $1,200 if single or $2,500 if married. The cost, over a 50-year period, was estimated at $65,000,000,000.

A proposal to stage a mock battle to settle conflicting claims for the Air Force's B-36 bomber and the Navy's jet fighter was rejected by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

A two-year personnel turnover of 87% was cited by Senator Hickenlooper to prove mismanagement

FALLS TOWNSHIP SCHOOL TAX JUMPS TO TOTAL 33 MILLS

Increase of Ten Mills Voted At Board Session Last Night

TRAILER TAX, $3 MO.

School Budget of $125,000 is Adopted For the Year 1949-1950

FALLSINGTON, June 2 — Falls Township School Board, last night, increased the tax rate 10 mills per dollar of assessed valuation and approved a resolution calling for a $3 per month tax on all trailers used either as business establishments or residences in the township for more than 15 days.

The budget for 1949-1950 totaling $125,000 was adopted.

Alvin Thompson, president of the board, pointed out that the tax increase was necessitated by a rise in school operating expenses with the merger of the Falls Township School District into the Pennsbury school system last year. The new tax rate will be 33 mills on real estate and a per capita tax of $5.

Approval of the measure was made following an hour-long discussion between trailer owners and the board. Members of the board explained that they did not want to "work a hardship" on the trailer

George School Donates Many Botanical Specimens

GEORGE SCHOOL, June 2 — A herbarium of several thousand botanical specimens, some 100 years old, was donated here today to the University of Pennsylvania.

John T. Carson, Jr., George School biology teacher and school representative in the herbarium gift, disclosed that the collection was being turned over to Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., professor of botany and vice provost of the university.

Included in the herbarium were specimens collected by Britton, world famous botanist, by Heritage, Shreve, Fretz and other names well known in the botanical world.

"I hasten to assure you," Dr. Fogg wrote Mr. Carson in correspondence leading up to the actual transfer of the herbarium, "that we would be delighted to accept it and would regard it as one of the most important accessions to come to us in recent years."

The George School herbarium supplements the university's already-large collection, which many regard as the most representative collection of Pennsylvania botanical specimens in existence.

Dungaree Dance and "Doggie" Roast To End Day

Following a morning filled with activities on the athletic field at Bristol high school, today, members of the class of 1949 gathered in the high school auditorium for a more formal program at one o'clock. The period between one and 3.30 p. m., will be given over to presentation of awards, and the staging of original skits by different groups.

Parents of graduates, as well as junior classmen, were invited to the more formal part of the day's program. National Honor Society awards, Rambler pins, shorthand and dramatic awards were received by a number of the students who will this month graduate from Bristol high school.

A number of faculty members, as well as pupils, have long been hoping for a "class day" instead of a "class night" program, and 1949 class set the precedent.

At 9.30 there was a humorous speech of welcome delivered by

HATTIE COLLINS, MORRISVILLE, GIVEN TWO TO FOUR YEARS FOR THE FATAL STABBING LAST OCT. OF JOHN BURK

Has Gruelling Day in Court; Frequently Near Collapse

NO MALICE SHOWN

Jail Warden Testifies That She Has Been Example To Other Prisoners

DOYLESTOWN, June 2 — Hattie Collins, 29, Morrisville Negress, charged with stabbing to death John Burk on October 24th last, was sentenced yesterday afternoon by Judge Fred W. Davis to pay $1 fine and costs, and to serve two to four years in the Bucks County jail from the date of her imprisonment, which was October 27, 1948.

The Collins woman had a very gruelling day in court yesterday, and upon several occasions was near collapse. Short recesses had to be called until she had gained her composure. At the close of the case, Lawrence Monroe, Bristol attorney, who was one of her defense lawyers, argued that the Commonwealth had failed to produce evidence of malice, deliberation or planning, and therefor a first or second degree verdict could not be returned. He told the court that over a period of several years the woman had been subjected to brutality by Burk.

District Attorney Edward J. Biester said that the prosecutor had no argument with the defense in this case, and he made no summation. Previous to the pronouncement of sentence, Earl Handy, jail warden, was called as a witness and said that Mrs. Collins was No. 1 model prisoner of all record in the county jail. She was the cleanest person he has had in the jail for a long time, he stated, and was an example to others. He said that he would highly recommend leniency.

The court announced that under the state statute for voluntary manslaughter, the court has the authority to commit to solitary confinement or simple imprisonment. The judge said he saw no cause for solitary confinement.

The verdict was a popular one as Miss Collins had made a number of friends both previous and during the time of her trial.

John Burk was stabbed with a small butcher knife on October 24, and died in a Trenton hospital several days later.

Arthur Ferris, of North Clinton st., Trenton, testified that he met Hattie Collins and Burk in a Tren-

Under the law she was entitled to $3 per day during the time she was in jail, and yesterday she received a check for $651. Mrs. Anderson said she was going to return to Bordentown and then go right back to Georgia.

BUCKS CO. IS FIRST IN THE 'ARMY' DRIVE

Reaches Quota Before Other Four in Philadelphia 5-County Area

HOLD REPORT LUNCH

Bucks County was the first in the Philadelphia five county area to reach its quota in the 1949 Salvation Army Maintenance Fund Drive. Wallace G. Murfit of Newtown, County Chairman, announced at the final report luncheon that Bucks County in addition to being first to reach its quota, also achieved the highest percent of quota with 117%. The Suburban Department received the Reading Trophy for the highest percent of quota.

"This was the most successful campaign The Salvation Army ever had in Bucks County," said Mr. Murfit. "I want to thank the hundreds of volunteers who 'help the hand that helps' to achieve its goal, not only for myself but mostly for all those who will receive the benefits of their solicitations.

"The boys and girls of Sell-Perk and Bristol High Schools have already realized their responsibilities as members of their community by soliciting in their respective towns. All the Junior Women's Clubs, Lions, and Kiwanis assisted greatly in the success of the campaign. The Salvation Army is a peoples charity which gives everyone a chance to extend a helping hand to his neighbor regardless of race, color or creed. I hope next year I may enroll even more volunteers so that the work of each one will be easier."

Individuals or groups are cordially invited to inspect the work and services of The Salvation Army's 35 agencies in this area and see just how and where their money is spent. Call or write The Salvation Army Headquarters, Broad Street & Fairmount Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. William Hill, Carroll Molloy and Alfred Lewis were vice-Chairman of the campaign.

KIWANIS PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO MEMBERS

Informal Talk is Delivered Tuesday Evening By Paul Sauerbry

PLAN FISHING FILMS

PENNDEL, June 2 — Trials, tribulations, and pleasures of a young man in establishing a dairy business was the topic of an informal talk by President Paul Sauerbry before assembled members and guests of the Bucks County Lincoln Highway Kiwanis Club at its meeting Tuesday evening, at the Royal Gardens Restaurant, Bensalem township.

Another feature of the meeting was a "Dr. I. Q." program, conducted by secretary E. J. Spinelli. This type of program affords opportunity to acquaint the members with the history and development of Kiwanis. Contestants in teams of three each were selected and the winning team was rewarded with a small prize.

In his talk, President Sauerbry told of his early days as a 4-H Club member and a contest winner in Iowa. His early days as a farm boy taught him "the lesson of hard work." He came east as a young man in his twenties and started as a farmhand, and has of recent years operated his own retail dairy business.

At the board of directors meeting which followed, it was voted to authorize the public affairs committee, on motion of John A. A. Crowley, chairman, to publicize the attrac-

Anxious To Go Places!

—o—

(By "The Stroller")

A porker, apparently anxious to board a train, gave attendants at Bristol station of the PRR quite a time yesterday shortly before noon.

Said pig, weighing 165 pounds or more, was not only bursting at the "seams" of his flesh, but gave one mighty heave and burst the boards of the crate that confined him. Then he made off up the bank toward the tracks, squealing all the way.

That's when the fun started. The chase was on, but Porky Pig was soon snatched in firm hands that found him a job to hold; a lasso was slipped about him. The next thing Porky knew he was a prisoner in the crate, this time more firmly nailed down, and he was confined to the elevator cage.

The Chamber of Commerce Offers Three Prizes For The Competition

The prizes will be for the best appearing district, best marching district and the district having the greatest number in line.

Hopes Dashed for Japanese Treaty Progress

Washington—Russian refusal to make any substantial concessions thus far at the Paris Foreign Ministers meeting is interpreted today as dashing hopes for progress on a Japanese peace treaty. Diplomatic quarters doubt that the Soviet proposal to consider the issue was made with an expectation of reaching an agreement on Japan any more than on Germany.

Russia Refuses to Permit Ballet Tour

New York—Russia firmly but politely declined today an offer by an American ballet company to dance before the Soviet people as a gesture of international good will. The company, Ballet Theater, Inc., offered to pay salaries and living expenses of 50 dancers and technicians as well as the cost of transporting scenery and costumes on the projected Soviet tour.

Asks That Son Not Be Returned to Chain Gang

Edgewater, N. J.—The mother of an 18-year-old New Jersey boy appealed today to Gov. Driscoll to prevent his return to a Florida chain gang, to serve out a sentence imposed when he was 17. Mrs. Winifred McCanney, of Edgewater, N. J., pleaded not for her son's freedom, but "for proper punishment, instead of chains and cruelty that will ruin his whole life." The boy, Francis Lee Malvin, spent most of the past year in Florida prisons. He was convicted of stealing a car while AWOL from the Army, in which he had recently enlisted.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

Paulette Goddard was a lucky girl to be named "Miss Glamour Back of 1949." . . . Not many girls could win a beauty contest facing in either direction.

And it's most unusual for a Hollywood girl to have anyone looking at her back although for all anyone knows Jane Russell also may have vivacious vertebrae.

They do say of girls like Miss Russell and Esther Williams that there is more to them than meets the eye . . . if that is possible.

Anyway, in the opinion of chiropractors, Miss Goddard has a superior spine . . . and they should know what's going on behind her back.

No male champ was chosen although on a performance basis John Lewis has shown more backbone than the whole government in any encounter between them.

In the last 17 years we've had 96 plans for what to do about Europe, Asia and Africa and 32 for handling Lewis . . . none of which have worked.

WORLD WHEAT PACT

Secretary Branman of the Department of Agriculture thinks it is important to ratify the world wheat agreement because of the precedent that will be set for other crops. If the world export-import basis for one crop can be stabilized, the way may be paved for systematizing world trade in other crops. Thus, the secretary believes, America would have an assured outlet for several crops and would be better able to cope with the surplus problem.

Under the agreement, America is assured a foreign market for 168,000,000 bushels of wheat annually, considerably more than this country had before the war, and a price range of $1.50 to $1.80 the first year. The price range finally would fluctuate between $1.20 and $1.80.

There is no doubt that unless America can develop export markets, it will be necessary to trim wheat acreage in this country to the lowest point in more than half a century.

There will be surpluses in several American crops this year. Mr. Brannan hopes that if the wheat agreement succeeds, the experience thus gained can be used to gain world cartels on all major crops. Agreements with the remainder of the world to take certain amounts of U. S. farm production at stated prices would simplify management of that part of production which the domestic markets must absorb.

If this has the earmarks of a totalitarian method, that's what it is.

BREAD-AND-BUTTER ITEM

It is not hard to understand the concern felt by small business over the competition offered it by Army post exchanges, Navy service stores, and commissaries. For the firms that are faced with that competition, this is a bread-and-butter matter. They cannot possibly meet the prices set by the tax-free and otherwise favored government exchanges.

They do not complain about discounts granted soldiers and sailors on the necessities of everyday life. They do protest against the policy under which service men may buy gifts for friends at actual cost.

That competition of this sort is unfair can hardly be denied and the House committee which is studying the situation will undoubtedly be given some pertinent and startling facts as to the extent of the practice.

The United States Chamber of Commerce has interested itself in the subject. It invites the committee's attention particularly to the principle that a government agency, in fixing prices, should follow conventional accounting practices and should consider all elements of cost—rents, taxes and loan interest—which are recognized by private enterprise.

This seems like elementary justice.

owners, but felt the $3 tax was necessary in view of the 10-mill rise in real estate taxes.

George Roberts was re-elected as treasurer of the board, and Bartley Cook was named secretary. Cook will fill the vacancy left by the resignation of the former secretary, Miss Dorothy Lovett.

The board also voted to reject a new state law providing abolition of tax delinquency penalties in the township. According to the state regulation, which applies only at the option of the local school boards involved, delinquent taxpayers would have interest charges and penalties abated by paying the amount in arrears.

In rejecting the state provision, members of the board pointed out that they felt the law was unfair to taxpayers who had made prompt payments.

The intellectual elements are too busy fretting and wringing their hands to listen to each other or anyone else. No two economists agree on where we stand or what to expect next. Social and welfare groups give their teas and sponsor all manner of projects—without, in most cases, even bothering to read up on the questions.

The Administrative affairs of the National government are in the hands of second-rate men, in the main—some of them political hacks, some of them career opportunities, some of them simply too small for the shoes they rattle around in.

Even the armed services, where often in the past there have been courage and strength, is fresh out of national leaders. Four years of abortive peace have tarnished the medals. Were a sudden crisis to arise, it is hard to think of a single military leader to whom the nation might turn voluntarily during the emergency.

Is all this "good or bad?"

Some of both. It is unfortunate for a great nation, in time of terrific internal and external stresses, to be disunited and leaderless.

Yet some of the situation reveals the strengths, as well as the operation, of this thing we call "democracy."

A whole people moves slowly—wisely so; and under the principles of the republican form of government, designedly so.

Resistance to stampede, even if there is milling around and lost motion while it is going on, may be an act of history-making importance.

That is what happened. The Truman Administration tried to stampede the American people into State Socialism.

They didn't stampede.

God willing, they may soon again find a sense of direction.

Hattie Collins, Morrisville, Given 2 to 4 Years For Fatally Stabbing John Burk

ton saloon on October 24, and rode back to Morrisville with them. Willie Mae Anderson, of Bordentown, N. J., was also with them.

Ferris testified that after they arrived at the Burk home in Morrisville, where Hattie Collins kept house for Burk, an argument started.

"Burk and Mrs. Collins were in the kitchen," Ferris testified. "They were arguing, and Mrs. Collins came into the living room and said she was tired of Burk hitting her in the face. Then Burk came in and said: 'Don't think you are so damn smart just because Artie is here' (meaning Arthur Ferris).

"Burk and Hattie started shoving each other around and she sat in a chair. Then she got up and she had a knife in her hand. I didn't see where she got the knife from, but she struck Burk with it in the right shoulder. Then Burk tried to choke her. Burk made a funny noise as though he was hurt, went outside and collapsed. Then I called the police."

Under cross-examination, Ferris testified that he had seen Burk choke and hit Hattie Collins on previous occasions. Burk weighed about 235 pounds, Ferris testified.

Dr. Fred J. Phillips, of Quakertown, coroner's physician, testified that he performed an autopsy on the body of the victim in a Trenton hospital on October 27, 1948. Burk died the day before.

Dr. Phillips testified that he found a cut in the victim's chest wall 1½ inches in length on the right side, between the second and third ribs. The right chest cavity contained three quarts of blood, indicating that Burk bled to death inwardly. He stated that the cause of death was a punctured lung, and internal hemorrhage. Dr. Phillips said that the cut in the chest wall was made by some sharp instrument.

Mrs. Willie Mae Anderson, 27, another eye witness to the stabbing, testified that she was at the Burk house with Ferris; that she is separated from her husband who lives in Miami, Fla.

"I heard Burk call Hattie a bad name and Hattie said one back," Mrs. Anderson testified. "I saw Hattie stab Burk, and I believe she took the knife from under a coat she was wearing. After Hattie stabbed Burk, she threw the knife across the floor and Burk grabbed her and choked her before he collapsed."

Patrolman Harry Tomlinson, of the Morrisville police, who was the first officer to arrive at the Burk house said that when he arrived there after being informed by Ferris, Burk was on his hands and knees outside the house and that Hattie and Willie Mae Anderson were next to him.

"On the way to the hospital," Patrolman Tomlinson testified, "Burk told me that Hattie had stabbed him."

Chief of Police Harry Christ, of Morrisville, identified the knife that he found in the Burk house as the one that the Collins woman used in the stabbing. He also testified that Hattie Collins gave him a complete statement and re-enacted the crime for him at the house.

Mrs. Collins took the stand. She testified that Burk beat her up unmercifully with his fist at least once a week and on one occasion threatened to kill her with a knife, and on another occasion threw a beer bottle at her.

"I had a knife in my hand when I walked into the living room," Hattie testified. "We had been arguing in the kitchen about some food that I was preparing for John Burk.

"Burk hit me a terrific blow in the stomach and then I swung the knife in a backward motion and hit him with the knife."

Hattie demonstrated with a pencil on the witness stand how she stabbed Burk.

"I had no intention of killing Burk," the defendant testified. "I couldn't stand it after he hit me in the stomach."

"After I stabbed Burk, he grabbed me, opened his shirt, and yelled, 'you stabbed me, you—', and then he hit me and choked me and said: 'I'll kill you,—you'. Then Ferris pulled Burk off me and went outside."

The defendant at this point broke down in hysterics, and a recess was taken for 10 minutes.

With a float firmly anchored offshore, bulkheads completed, a walk erected to the float, and improvements moving forward at a fast pace, both to the interior and exterior of the new club house, the Bristol Yacht Club is just about set for a season of real activity. Electric power for indoor and outdoor lighting was turned on a few days ago.

In a fun race among club members, held on the Delaware over the week-end, nine duster class sailboats participated. Two brothers, Joseph and John Cherubini, finished in first and second place, respectively.

Discuss Plans For A Scout Camping Trip

CROYDON, June 2—On Tuesday evening the two age groups of Croydon Girl Scout Troop 7 held a combined meeting. Plans were discussed for their forthcoming camping trip. Plans are also being made to visit James Sutton, of Bridgewater, who will show the girls his display of antique automobiles.

The highlight of the evening was a visit of home economists who gave the girls a demonstration on both indoor and outdoor cookery. The platters used for the demonstration were given out to "lucky" girls whose names were drawn from a box. Sixty-three girls and four leaders attended.

The girls who paraded on Memorial Day numbered 44.

FRANKLIN A. C. GOES INTO THIRD PLACE IN LEAGUE

Franklin A. C. leaped into third place in the Bristol Suburban Softball circuit by winning over the Jefferson A. C., 4-2, last evening on Memorial Park field.

Two runs in each the first and fifth innings gave the Franklin team the triumph. Jefferson had several opportunities to tie the score but were helpless in the pinches.

"Reggie" Gerome won his third mound win for the Franklin team while "Willie" Salerno was the losing moundsman. Both hurlers allowed seven safe blows.

Franklin scored its first pair of Markers after two were out. Sagolla and Capello were on base as the result of a walk and a fielder's choice. Bert Barbetta singled home the first run on an overthrow by DeLisa the second run came over.

The winning runs were shoved over in the fifth on a walk to Gerome, a triple by Manager Tony Capello and a fielder's choice on which Capello beat Ciotti's throw to the plate.

Doubles by Peltz and Salerno gave Jefferson a run in the third while in the fifth, DeLisa walked and Hunter and Peltz had base hits. Two were still on base when Gerome retired Salerno and Ferraro for the final outs of the inning.

Jefferson had three on in the sixth when Bert Barbetta came up with a fast double-play to end a rally. In the final frame, Cauti opened with a double but could not be advanced.

ROHM & HAAS TEN DEFEATS LEEDOM'S

The Rohm & Haas ten swamped the Leedom's team in a Bristol Industrial Softball League game on the Hunter-Wilson field last evening. Final score was 14-4.

Ten big runs in the first frame gave the plastic-makers a commanding lead which was never relinquished. The rug-makers came back in the second to score three times but the chemical mixers retaliated with three in their half of the inning.

"Ed" Sullivan and Horace Tranter led the winners at the plate with three out of four each.

The Leedom team made but four hits off the delivery of Jack Spencer who also fanned three batters.

*Hydra-Matic Drive, white sidewall tires, bumper guards and fender shields available at extra cost.

America's Lowest-Priced Straight Eight!

WORLD'S SWEETEST ENGINE!

You really don't know what topflight performance is until you've driven behind the great Pontiac engine. Its power, its quiet smoothness and its economy are a revelation—and will be for miles and miles!

Until they see the actual figures, few people realize that the big, beautiful Pontiac eight is America's lowest-priced straight eight. Not only does it undersell all other straight eights by a substantial margin, but it actually costs less than many six-cylinder cars!

The fact that the Pontiac eight gives so much for so little is the basic reason for the great and growing popularity it enjoys.

Pontiac has distinguished appearance, and distinctive Silver Streak styling. Its spacious Body by Fisher is handsomely upholstered and appointed. It offers the amazing driving ease of GM Hydra-Matic Drive.* And it carries the well-known Pontiac promise of long life and fine, dependable performance over the years.

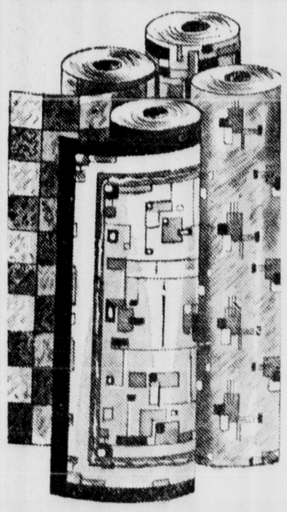

We honestly believe that no other car carries such definite assurance of really enjoyable performance at so low a cost. We invite you to come in and take the wheel yourself. We're sure you'll be very pleasantly surprised.

AUCTIONS—LEGALS

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Borough of Hulmeville, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, will receive sealed bids for the purchase of 25 general obligation coupon Street Improvement Bonds, in the denomination of $1,000 each, aggregating $25,000 bearing interest at a rate to be named by the bidder or bidders in multiples of one-eighth of one per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually on June 15 and December 15. Bids will be received for the entire issue at any one rate of interest but no bid combining two different rates of interest will be accepted. Said bonds and the interest thereon will be payable without deductions for any tax or taxes, except succession or inheritance taxes, now or hereafter levied or assessed thereon under any present or future law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, all of which taxes, the Borough of Hulmeville assumes and agrees to pay. The bonds will be sold to the highest responsible bidder, provided such bid is not less than par and accrued interest.

The highest responsible bidder shall be the one who, having complied with the conditions of sale, offers to take the whole amount of the issue at the lowest interest cost to the municipality, which shall be determined by deducting from the total amount of interest to be paid on account of such bonds during the life thereof the amount of premium offered, if any, over and above the face amount of the issue.

The bonds will be dated June 15, 1949, may be registered as to principal only and will mature in numerical order as follows: $2,000 on June 15, 1950, and $2,000 on June 15 each year thereafter up to and including June 15, 1961; then $1,000 on June 15, 1962.

Every bid should be addressed to Harriet W. Bunting Black, Secretary, Council Chambers, Trenton Avenue, Hulmeville, Pennsylvania, and shall be placed in a sealed envelope sufficiently labeled to indicate that it is a bid for the bonds of this issue, before being delivered to the aforesaid Secretary. Bids will be received up to 8:00 o'clock p. m., D.S.T. on the 6th day of June 1949, at which time they will be publicly opened at the aforementioned address by the secretary.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check or Treasurer's check drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the Borough of Hulmeville or a sum of money, equal to two per centum of the face amount of the bonds, as security against any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of said bid. The deposit of each unsuccessful bidder will be returned immediately upon the award of the bonds or the rejection of all bids. In the case of the successful bidder, the deposit will be held by the Treasurer and will be applied to the purchase price when the bonds are actually delivered and paid for.

These obligations will be payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes.

No amendment, at any time prior to the delivery of the bonds, of Federal legislation which in terms, by the repeal or omission of exemptions or otherwise, subjects to a Federal income tax the interest on bonds of a class or character which includes these bonds, will at the election of the purchaser, relieve the purchaser from his obligations under the terms of the contract of sale and entitle the purchaser to the return of the amount deposited with the bid.

These bonds are issued subject to the favorable opinion of Messrs. Townsend, Elliott & Munson, Philadelphia, Pa., which will be delivered free of charge to the purchaser only if and after the proceedings authorizing the issuance thereof have been approved by the Department of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

For further information apply to the undersigned.

By order of the Borough of Hulmeville.

Bucks County Playhouse To Open; To Star Kay Francis

NEW HOPE, June 2 — The gala premiere of the Bucks County Playhouse operated by producer Theron Bamberger, here, will occur Friday evening when glamouous Kay Francis, favorite of stage and screen, will be seen as the star of "Let Us Be Gay," the sophisticated comedy by Rachel Crothers, which the late Burns Mantle called one of the ten best of its presentation year. This is the tenth year that the Playhouse on the picturesque banks of the Delaware will offer summer entertainment. In those years it has gained renown as one of the outstanding professional theatres on the "straw-hat" circuit. As usual the season will last 15 weeks with a different play each week, and distinguished Broadway stars in each production.

"Let Us Be Gay" will run for 11 performances through Saturday evening, June 11, with three matinees, on June 4, 8th, and 11th. Subsequent plays will run one week only.

Luminaries of the stage and literary world, many of whom reside in nearby communities of famous Bucks County, will attend the premiere, Friday night. Among the celebrities who have made reservations for the first performance are Ezra Stone, Sylvia Sidney, Justin Herman (author and producer of the motion picture "The Lambertville Story"), Paul Whiteman, Kenyon Nicholson, Tony Williams, George S. Kaufman, Kitty Carlisle, Moss Hart, Don Walker, Margaret Mullen, John Root, Mrs. John Matthews, Jr. (radio's Stella Dallas), and many others.

Mr. Bamberger has assembled a distinguished Broadway cast which includes, besides Kay Francis, Joel Ashley, Viola Roache, June Dayton, Lewis Martin, Henry Jones, Dorothy Elder, Michael Sivy, Ruth White and St. Clair Bayfield, who incidentally, acted his present role in the original Broadway production.

"I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ" (Rom 1:16)

Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel because the Gospel of the Lord Jesus ha dsaved him from the guilt and penalty of his own sin. He recognized in the Gospel the redeeming love of God revealed to men through the cross of Jesus Christ. He could never be ashamed of such love—he could never despise such a Savior. Even in Rome with all of its human power of his day, Paul had to take the simple message of salvation through the finished work of Jesus. He was proud of the Gospel. Proud that he was saved by it. Proud that he could offer it freely without money and without price to all who believe and receive its message.

BENSALEM GIRLS WIN LOWER BUCKS SOFTBALL CROWN

NEWTOWN, June 2 — Bensalem Township High School girls' softball team won the Lower Bucks County championship yesterday with an 8-5 win over the Council Rock High School team.

It was the seventh straight win for Coach Annetta Reber's lassies, they beating every team in the loop. The league was composed of Langhorne, Bristol, Bristol Township, Southampton, Pennsbury, Council Rock, New Hope, and Bensalem.

Last season, Bensalem was runner-up to the Langhorne High School girls.

Bensalem scored three times to take the lead in the first inning yesterday and at the end of the third had a 5-1 lead. Two tallies in the sixth clinched the tilt for the Owlettes.

Council Rock's lineup was as follows: Worthington, 1b; Thompson, 3b; Sterner, lf; Appleton, lf; Bellmeyer, cf; M. Lupp, sf; Banner, p; Usilton, p; B. Lupp, 2b; Otts, rf; Yamoto, c; H. Sterner, ss.

Score by Innings:

SALLUSTIO NARROWLY MISSES HALL OF FAME

Angelo Sallustio, who hurled for St. Ann's A. A. in the Bristol Suburban Baseball League last season, recently pitched the 54th Engineers to a 4-0 victory over the 1st Battalion, 2nd Cavalry, at Vaihingen, Germany.

In pitching his shutout, Sallustio narrowly missed the mythical hall of fame, allowing the losers but one hit. That bingle was a single by Joe Tokach in the second inning.

Sallustio also had three hits in the game and fanned six batters. He did not issue a pass.

Sallustio, who resides on Jefferson Avenue, has a brother, Joseph, who has played third base for the "Saints" for the past three seasons. While in the local circuit last season, Angelo won three and lost one.

SCORDIA SIGNS McGERR TO PITCH

Manager John "Spike" Scordia is still attempting to strengthen the pitching staff of the St. Ann's A. A. team in the Trenton Industrial League. Last evening, Scordia announced the signing of William "Bill" McGerr, who recently returned after receiving a try-out at Lexington, North Carolina.

It is most likely that Scordia will use McGerr on the hill against the Micharski team tomorrow at Wetzel field, Trenton.

The "Saints" have won three straight games in the loop and are fighting for top position. They are still behind in schedule, having entered the loop after two weeks of playing had elapsed.

HIBERNIANS WIN

The Hibernians nosed out the Lewis Lodge of Elks, 8-7, last evening in a Suburban League contest on Leedom's field. The Hibs had the lead from the start, at one time enjoying an 8-2 edge. The Elks rallied but fell one run short of deadlocking the score.

COASTING

America is coasting. It is drifting along out of gear. There is no national policy, no direction, no leadership.

Everyone is holding his breath. What comes next? Is this the calm before the storm? Is it a mere brief leveling-off place in a long upward climb? Is it the start of a slow "deep-freeze" depression?

Who can plan, when nobody knows what is ahead?

President Truman can command, but he cannot lead; he can order, but he does not inspire.

For the time, his program has bogged down. His own party membership has cut the ground out from under it. The Democrats have the votes in Congress. They have refused to use them to support "their" President.

This is just as well. The program was ruinous. Great segments of the population, and large, important geographic areas, bitterly opposed parts of it. Seething rebellion against much of his proposals would have occurred farther down the line, even if the Democrats in Congress had decided to give Mr. Truman what he asked.

President Truman took his campaign too seriously, the election not seriously enough. For strategy purposes, last year, he undercut the radical wing of his party by stealing Wallace's thunder. Because he "ran against Congress," because he dangled vote-bait before selfish groups, and won, he missed the point of the election figures.

Only one voter out of every four in America took the President and his promises seriously enough to come out and support him on election day.

Seventy-five percent of the American population was either openly opposed to the Truman schemes, or too uneasy about them to vote for them, or quite indifferent to the issues he raised.

Again and again, fate has offered Harry Truman the greatest chances in history to reveal statesmanship. He could, for instance, on first coming to office, have forced a showdown on all the deals, secrecy and weaknesses in the post-war peace arrangements. Thereby he might have turned tragic chaos into workability. But he missed the boat.

Over and again the stage has been set for President Truman to adopt a moderate middle-course in national affairs, to reconcile opposing political wings, to meet Congress half-way, and thereby to break a deadlock in Federal Government, between White House and Capitol Hill, which is now entering its fourth year.

The significant group in last year's election wasn't the 25 per cent who voted for Truman, nor the 25 per cent who split their votes three ways against him—but the 50 per cent who stayed home.

What does this half-of-a-nation, who voiced no opinion last year, want of their national government?

That is the question Mr. Truman might better have asked himself, than demanding by what species of cleverness, pressure and patronage he could keep promises that should never have been made, on behalf of greedy minority groups which need harnessing more than favoritism.

Obviously, the silent half doesn't want Socialism. They weren't tempted by the Socialist promises of various candidates last year to the point of coming to the polls. It is their pressure on individual Congressmen which has put backbone into the fight against such Truman schemes as return to the Wagner Act, nationalized housing, Federalized schools, socialized medicine, government take-over of industry.

Disregarding this half-of-a-nation which was too disinterested in Mr. Truman's campaign to vote either for it or against it, the President has fussed and fumed for six months and got precisely nowhere. The only really significant bill passed this year was that of the closing days of the former Congress—the President's salary-raiser which makes him, in take-home pay and perquisites, one of the highest-income men in the world.

But the labor issue hasn't been solved, the trade and tariff issues haven't been answered, school and housing are still up in the air, civil rights questions lie dormant, the "unified" military services are as demoralized as ever, the Atlantic Pact simmers uneasily on the back of the stove, and the real "toughie" of the year—whether to arm Europe or not—may never come up in Congress this season.

The lack of leadership in national policy is conspicuous. Plans are made and countermanded. New policies are announced and promptly discarded. No one can say with assurance where we stand with reference to inflation, to national credit, to jobs and "made-work," towards Russia, on the future policy towards China and Japan—nor, for that matter, on almost any important question you can think of.

Leadership is just as lacking elsewhere. In Congress, many speak—but few are followed; No single figure has risen to tower above the rest—to become a rallying point for a majority coalition.

Outside Congress, who speaks with authority and conviction? Labor's "leaders" are frantically waiting for straws in the wind to tell them which way to swing. Industry has produced no present economic or political spokesman to call the turn. Business is getting in the hay while the sun still shines—and readying up the storm cellars!

FALLS TOWNSHIP SCHOOL TAX JUMPS TO TOTAL 33 MILLS

Increase of Ten Mills Voted At Board Session Last Night

TRAILER TAX, $3 MO.

School Budget of $125,000 is Adopted For the Year 1949-1950

FALLSINGTON, June 2 — Falls Township School Board, last night, increased the tax rate 10 mills per dollar of assessed valuation and approved a resolution calling for a $3 per month tax on all trailers used either as business establishments or residences in the township for more than 15 days.

The budget for 1949-1950 totaling $125,000 was adopted.

Alvin Thompson, president of the board, pointed out that the tax increase was necessitated by a rise in school operating expenses with the merger of the Falls Township School District into the Pennsbury school system last year. The new tax rate will be 33 mills on real estate and a per capita tax of $5.

Approval of the measure was made following an hour-long discussion between trailer owners and the board. Members of the board explained that they did not want to "work a hardship" on the trailer

George School Donates Many Botanical Specimens

GEORGE SCHOOL, June 2 — A herbarium of several thousand botanical specimens, some 100 years old, was donated here today to the University of Pennsylvania.

John T. Carson, Jr., George School biology teacher and school representative in the herbarium gift, disclosed that the collection was being turned over to Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., professor of botany and vice provost of the university.

Included in the herbarium were specimens collected by, Britton, world famous botanist, by Heritage, Shreve, Fretz and other names well known in the botanical world.

"I hasten to assure you," Dr. Fogg wrote Mr. Carson in correspondence leading up to the actual transfer of the herbarium, "that we would be delighted to accept it and would regard it as one of the most important accessions to come to us in recent years."

The George School herbarium supplements the university's already-large collection, which many regard as the most representative collection of Pennsylvania botanical specimens in existence.

Group Adjourns To School Athletic Field For Sports Events

HAVE PICNIC LUNCH

Dungaree Dance and "Doggie" Roast To End Day

Following a morning filled with activities on the athletic field at Bristol high school, today, members of the class of 1949 gathered in the high school auditorium for a more formal program at one o'clock. The period between one and 3.30 p. m., will be given over to presentation of awards, and the staging of original skits by different groups.

Parents of graduates, as well as junior classmen, were invited to the more formal part of the day's program. National Honor Society awards, Rambler pins, shorthand and dramatic awards were received by a number of the students who will this month graduate from Bristol high school.

A number of faculty members, as well as pupils, have long been hoping for a "class day" instead of a "class night" program, and 1949 class set the precedent.

At 9.30 there was a humorous speech of welcome delivered by

HATTIE COLLINS, MORRISVILLE, GIVEN TWO TO FOUR YEARS FOR THE FATAL STABBING LAST OCT. OF JOHN BURK

Has Gruelling Day in Court; Frequently Near Collapse

NO MALICE SHOWN

Jail Warden Testifies That She Has Been Example To Other Prisoners

DOYLESTOWN, June 2 — Hattie Collins, 29, Morrisville Negress, charged with stabbing to death John Burk on October 24th last, was sentenced yesterday afternoon by Judge Fred W. Davis to pay $1 fine and costs, and to serve two to four years in the Bucks County jail from the date of her imprisonment, which was October 27, 1948.

The Collins woman had a very gruelling day in court yesterday, and upon several occasions was near collapse. Short recesses had to be called until she had gained her composure. At the close of the case, Lawrence Monroe, Bristol attorney, who was one of her defense lawyers, argued that the Commonwealth had failed to produce evidence of malice, deliberation or planning, and therefor a first or second degree verdict could not be returned. He told the court that over a period of several years the woman had been subjected to brutality by Burk.

District Attorney Edward J. Biester said that the prosecutor had no argument with the defense in this case, and he made no summation. Previous to the pronouncement of sentence, Earl Handy, jail warden, was called as a witness and said that Mrs. Collins was No. 1 model prisoner of all record in the county jail. She was the cleanest person he has had in the jail for a long time, he stated, and was an example to others. He said that he would highly recommend leniency.

The court announced that under the state statute for voluntary manslaughter, the court has the authority to commit to solitary confinement or simple imprisonment. The judge said he saw no cause for solitary confinement.

The verdict was a popular one as Miss Collins had made a number of friends both previous and during the time of her trial.

John Burk was stabbed with a small butcher knife on October 24, and died in a Trenton hospital several days later.

Arthur Ferris, of North Clinton st., Trenton, testified that he met Hattie Collins and Burk in a Tren-

Eye-Witness Gets $651

DOYLESTOWN, June 2—Mrs. Willie Mae Anderson, Bordentown, N. J., who was an eye-witness to the stabbing of John Burk at Morrisville on October 24th, and who has been held in the county jail as a material witness, was discharged yesterday. Under the law she was entitled to $3 per day during the time she was in jail, and yesterday she received a check for $651. Mrs. Anderson said she was going to return to Bordentown and then go right back to Georgia.

BUCKS CO. IS FIRST IN THE 'ARMY' DRIVE

Reaches Quota Before Other Four in Philadelphia 5-County Area

HOLD REPORT LUNCH

Bucks County was the first in the Philadelphia five county area to reach its quota in the 1949 Salvation Army Maintenance Fund Drive, Wallace G. Murfit of Newtown, County Chairman, announced at the final report luncheon that Bucks County in addition to being first to reach its quota, also achieved the highest percent of quota with 117%. The Suburban Department received the Reading Trophy for the highest percent of quota.

"This was the most successful campaign The Salvation Army ever had in Bucks County," said Mr. Murfit. "I want to thank the hundreds of volunteers who 'help the hand that helps' to achieve its goal, not only for myself but mostly for all those who will receive the benefits of their solicitations.

"The boys and girls of Sell-Perk and Bristol High Schools have already realized their responsibilities as members of their community by soliciting in their respective towns. All the Junior Women's Clubs, Lions, and Kiwanis assisted greatly in the success of the campaign. The Salvation Army is a peoples charity which gives everyone a chance to extend a helping hand to his neighbor regardless of race, color or creed. I hope next year I may enroll even more volunteers so that the work of each one will be easier."

Individuals or groups are cordially invited to inspect the work and services of The Salvation Army's 35 agencies in this area and see just how and where their money is spent. Call or write The Salvation Army Headquarters, Broad Street & Fairmount Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. William Hill, Carroll Molloy and Alfred Lewis were vice-Chairman of the campaign.

KIWANIS PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO MEMBERS

Informal Talk is Delivered Tuesday Evening By Paul Sauerbry

PLAN FISHING FILMS

PENNDEL, June 2 — Trials, tribulations, and pleasures of a young man in establishing a dairy business was the topic of an informal talk by President Paul Sauerbry before assembled members and guests of the Bucks County Lincoln Highway Kiwanis Club at its meeting Tuesday evening, at the Royal Gardens Restaurant, Bensalem township.

Another feature of the meeting was a "Dr. I. Q." program, conducted by secretary E. J. Spinelli. This type of program affords opportunity to acquaint the members with the history and development of Kiwanis. Contestants in teams of three each were selected and the winning team was rewarded with a small prize.

In his talk, President Sauerbry told of his early days as a 4-H Club member and a contest winner in Iowa. His early days as a farm boy taught him "the lesson of hard work." He came east as a young man in his twenties and started as a farmhand, and has of recent years operated his own retail dairy business.

At the board of directors meeting which followed, it was voted to authorize the public affairs committee, on motion of John A. A. Crowley, chairman, to publicize the attrac-

Anxious To Go Places!

(By "The Stroller")

A porker, apparently anxious to board a train, gave attendants at Bristol station of the PRR quite a time yesterday shortly before noon.

Said pig, weighing 165 pounds or more, was not only bursting at the "seams" of his flesh, but gave one mighty heave and burst the boards of the crate that confined him. Then he made off up the bank toward the tracks, squealing all the way.

That's when the fun started. The chase was on, but Porky Pig was soon snatched in firm hands that found him a job to hold; a lasso was slipped about him. The next thing Porky knew he was a prisoner in the crate, this time more firmly nailed down, and he was confined to the elevator cage.

PLENTY OF MUSIC FOR YOUTH WEEK PARADE

The Chamber of Commerce Offers Three Prizes For The Competition

SERVE REFRESHMENTS

There is increasing rivalry between the six wards of Bristol and Edgely as the districts prepare to compete in the Youth Week parade to be held here on the evening of June 15th. Each ward will strive to surpass the other and capture the prizes which are offered.

I. J. Hetherington, chairman of the parade committee, met with the various district leaders and others last evening, and announced there would be three plaques offered as prizes for the permanent ownership of the district winning them.

The prizes will be for the best appearing district, best marching district and the district having the greatest number in line.

Then there will be two prizes for each district which will be given for pets.

The prizes are being given by the Bristol Chamber of Commerce which is co-sponsoring Youth Week along with the Bristol YMCA. The parade is the concluding feature of the week.

Five judges will be selected but are not yet announced. They will judge the parade at various points.

There will be a placard designating each district and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the parade.

Plenty of music will be provided including the Bracken Post senior and junior drum corps, Ciotti's Accordion Band, Bristol High School Band and the Terchon Post Cadets. St. Francis School is to be invited to participate.

Two Legion men will assist each district in forming the parade and places for forming and the route of the parade will be announced later.

The parade will start between six and 6.30.

SLIGHT DAMAGE

CROYDON, June 2—Slight damage was caused this morning when a hole was burned in the floor of the kitchen at the home of Michael DiVitro, Church street. According to Croydon Fire Co. members, who answered the alarm, the blaze apparently started beneath the sink. The frame bungalow contains three rooms. Mr. DiVitro was not at home at the time, and firemen broke the door down to fight the blaze.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

All four occupying powers are in Berlin as a matter of right, and the United States intends to stay there, Secretary Acheson declared in the Foreign Ministers' Council yesterday. Discussion of the Berlin problem soon foundered on Russia's insistence upon the full veto in the four-power Kommandatura. Mr. Acheson suggested limiting the veto to military and security measures. Berlin rail strikers will vote today on resuming traffic between that city and the Western zones. The referendum is on a proposal to receive 60% of their wages in Western marks.

Regardless of what decision the Big Four may reach on Germany, a "united and secure world" will not return until the Germans, with our help, become truly democratic and Germany is brought again into Europe's economy, General Clay said. Receiving an honorary degree from Columbia University he warned that the struggle between collectivism and democracy would continue "for years to come." General Eisenhower, officiating as president of Columbia, issued a similar warning.

Despite these tensions, President Truman said "we are closer to world peace now than at any time in the last three years," and Winston Churchill felt a "growing hope" that a new war could be avoided.

The United States and Britain invoked the human rights and freedom clauses of the Bulgarian, Hungarian and Rumanian peace treaties after protests against abridgement of those guarantees had brought unsatisfactory replies.

Britain announced recognition of a government of Cyrenaica, headed by the spiritual and temporal leader of the Senussis but retained control over external affairs until the United Nations disposed of Italy's former colonies.

The House, 365 to 27, passed a bill providing $72 monthly pensions for veterans reaching 65 years of age who have no private income of $1,200 if single or $2,500 if married. The cost, over a 50-year period, was estimated at $65,000,000,000.

A proposal to stage a mock battle to settle conflicting claims for the Air Force's B-36 bomber and the Navy's jet fighter was rejected by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Hopes Dashed for Japanese Treaty Progress

Washington—Russian refusal to make any substantial concessions thus far at the Paris Foreign Ministers meeting is interpreted today as dashing hopes for progress on a Japanese peace treaty. Diplomatic quarters doubt that the Soviet proposal to consider the issue was made with an expectation of reaching an agreement on Japan any more than on Germany.

Russia Refuses to Permit Ballet Tour

New York—Russia firmly but politely declined today an offer by an American ballet company to dance before the Soviet people as a gesture of international good will. The company, Ballet Theater, Inc., offered to pay salaries and living expenses of 50 dancers and technicians as well as the cost of transporting scenery and costumes on the projected Soviet tour.

Asks That Son Not Be Returned to Chain Gang

Edgewater, N. J.—The mother of an 18-year-old New Jersey boy appealed today to Gov. Driscoll to prevent his return to a Florida chain gang, to serve out a sentence imposed when he was 17. Mrs. Winifred McCanney, of Edgewater, N. J., pleaded not for her son's freedom, but "for proper punishment, instead of chains and cruelty that will ruin his whole life." The boy, Francis Lee Malvin, spent most of the past year in Florida prisons. He was convicted of stealing a car while AWOL from the Army, in which he had recently enlisted.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

Paulette Goddard was a lucky girl to be named "Miss Glamour Back of 1949." . . . Not many girls could win a beauty contest facing in either direction.

And it's most unusual for a Hollywood girl to have anyone looking at her back although for all anyone knows Jane Russell also may have vivacious vertebrae.

They do say of girls like Miss Russell and Esther Williams that there is more to them than meets the eye . . . if that is possible.

Anyway, in the opinion of chiropractors, Miss Goddard has a superior spine . . . and they should know what's going on behind her back.

No male champ was chosen although on a performance basis John Lewis has shown more backbone than the whole government in any encounter between them.

In the last 17 years we've had 96 plans for what to do about Europe, Asia and Africa and 32 for handling Lewis . . . none of which have worked.

WORLD WHEAT PACT

Secretary Brannan of the Department of Agriculture thinks it is important to ratify the world wheat agreement because of the precedent that will be set for other crops. If the world export-import basis for one crop can be stabilized, the way may be paved for systematizing world trade in other crops. Thus, the secretary believes, America would have an assured outlet for several crops and would be better able to cope with the surplus problem.

Under the agreement, America is assured a foreign market for 168,000,000 bushels of wheat annually, considerably more than this country had before the war, and a price range of $1.50 to $1.80 the first year. The price range finally would fluctuate between $1.20 and $1.80.

There is no doubt that unless America can develop export markets, it will be necessary to trim wheat acreage in this country to the lowest point in more than half a century.

There will be surpluses in several American crops this year. Mr. Brannan hopes that if the wheat agreement succeeds, the experience thus gained can be used to gain world cartels on all major crops. Agreements with the remainder of the world to take certain amounts of U. S. farm production at stated prices would simplify management of that part of production which the domestic markets must absorb.

If this has the earmarks of a totalitarian method, that's what it is.

BREAD-AND-BUTTER ITEM

It is not hard to understand the concern felt by small business over the competition offered it by Army post exchanges, Navy service stores, and commissaries. For the firms that are faced with that competition, this is a bread-and-butter matter. They cannot possibly meet the prices set by the tax-free and otherwise favored government exchanges.

They do not complain about discounts granted soldiers and sailors on the necessities of everyday life. They do protest against the policy under which service men may buy gifts for friends at actual cost.

That competition of this sort is unfair can hardly be denied and the House committee which is studying the situation will undoubtedly be given some pertinent and startling facts as to the extent of the practice.

The United States Chamber of Commerce has interested itself in the subject. It invites the committee's attention particularly to the principle that a government agency, in fixing prices, should follow conventional accounting practices and should consider all elements of cost—rents, taxes and loan interest—which are recognized by private enterprise.

This seems like elementary justice.

owners, but felt the $3 tax was necessary in view of the 10-mill rise in real estate taxes.

George Roberts was re-elected as treasurer of the board, and Bartley Cook was named secretary. Cook will fill the vacancy left by the resignation of the former secretary, Miss Dorothy Lovett.

The board also voted to reject a new state law providing abolition of tax delinquency penalties in the township. According to the state regulation, which applies only at the option of the local school boards involved, delinquent taxpayers would have interest charges and penalties abated by paying the amount in arrears.

In rejecting the state provision, members of the board pointed out that they felt the law was unfair to taxpayers who had made prompt payments.

The intellectual elements are too busy fretting and wringing their hands to listen to each other or anyone else. No two economists agree on where we stand or what to expect next. Social and welfare groups give their teas and sponsor all manner of projects—without, in most cases, even bothering to read up on the questions.

The Administrative affairs of the National government are in the hands of second-rate men, in the main—some of them political hacks, some of them career opportunities, some of them simply too small for the shoes they rattle around in.

Even the armed services, where often in the past there have been courage and strength, is fresh out of national leaders. Four years of abortive peace have tarnished the medals. Were a sudden crisis to arise, it is hard to think of a single military leader to whom the nation might turn voluntarily during the emergency.

Is all this "good or bad?"

Some of both. It is unfortunate for a great nation, in time of terrific internal and external stresses, to be disunited and leaderless.

Yet some of the situation reveals the strengths, as well as the operation, of this thing we call "democracy."

A whole people moves slowly—wisely so; and under the principles of the republican form of government, designedly so.

Resistance to stampede, even if there is milling around and lost motion while it is going on, may be an act of history-making importance.

That is what happened. The Truman Administration tried to stampede the American people into State Socialism.

They didn't stampede.

God willing, they may soon again find a sense of direction.

Hattie Collins, Morrisville, Given 2 to 4 Years For Fatally Stabbing John Burk

ton saloon on October 24, and rode back to Morrisville with them. Willie Mae Anderson, of Bordentown, N. J., was also with them.

Ferris testified that after they arrived at the Burk home in Morrisville, where Hattie Collins kept house for Burk, an argument started.

"Burk and Mrs. Collins were in the kitchen," Ferris testified. "They were arguing, and Mrs. Collins came into the living room and said she was tired of Burk hitting her in the face. Then Burk came in and said: 'Don't think you are so damn smart just because Artie is here' (meaning Arthur Ferris).

"Burk and Hattie started shoving each other around and she sat in a chair. Then she got up and she had a knife in her hand. I didn't see where she got the knife from, but she struck Burk with it in the right shoulder. Then Burk tried to choke her. Burk made a funny noise as though he was hurt, went outside and collapsed. Then I called the police."

Under cross-examination, Ferris testified that he had seen Burk choke and hit Hattie Collins on previous occasions. Burk weighed about 235 pounds, Ferris testified.

Dr. Fred J. Phillips, of Quakertown, coroner's physician, testified that he performed an autopsy on the body of the victim in a Trenton hospital on October 27, 1948. Burk died the day before.

Dr. Phillips testified that he found a cut in the victim's chest wall 1½ inches in length on the right side, between the second and third ribs. The right chest cavity contained three quarts of blood, indicating that Burk bled to death inwardly. He stated that the cause of death was a punctured lung, and internal hemorrhage. Dr. Phillips said that the cut in the chest wall was made by some sharp instrument.

Mrs. Willie Mae Anderson, 27, another eye witness to the stabbing, testified that she was at the Burk house with Ferris; that she is separated from her husband who lives in Miami, Fla.

"I heard Burk call Hattie a bad name and Hattie said one back," Mrs. Anderson testified. "I saw Hattie stab Burk, and I believe she took the knife from under a coat she was wearing. After Hattie stabbed Burk, she threw the knife across the floor and Burk grabbed her and choked her before he collapsed."

Patrolman Harry Tomlinson, of the Morrisville police, who was the first officer to arrive at the Burk house said that when he arrived there after being informed by Ferris, Burk was on his hands and knees outside the house and that Hattie and Willie Mae Anderson were next to him.

"On the way to the hospital," Patrolman Tomlinson testified, "Burk told me that Hattie had stabbed him."

Chief of Police Harry Christ, of Morrisville, identified the knife that he found in the Burk house as the one that the Collins woman used in the stabbing. He also testified that Hattie Collins gave him a complete statement and re-enacted the crime for him at the house.

Mrs. Collins took the stand. She testified that Burk beat her up unmercifully with his fist at least once a week and on one occasion threatened to kill her with a knife, and on another occasion threw a beer bottle at her.

"I had a knife in my hand when I walked into the living room," Hattie testified. "We had been arguing in the kitchen about some food that I was preparing for John Burk.

"Burk hit me a terrific blow in the stomach and then I swung the knife in a backward motion and hit him with the knife."

Hattie demonstrated with a pencil on the witness stand how she stabbed Burk.

"I had no intention of killing Burk," the defendant testified. "I couldn't stand it after he hit me in the stomach."

"After I stabbed Burk, he grabbed me, opened his shirt, and yelled, 'you stabbed me, you—', and then he hit me and choked me and said: 'I'll kill you, you'. Then Ferris pulled Burk off me and went outside."

The defendant at this point broke down in hysterics, and a recess was taken for 10 minutes.

Letters, Certificates Are Given As Athletes Dine

The annual banquet given the girl athletes, Bristol high school, and sponsored by the Mothers' Association, was held last evening in the high school cafeteria.

Mrs. Gerald Martin and her committee had charge of the dining room. The tables were decorated with bouquets of roses and other spring blossoms. The programs were made by Dorothy Bailey, one of the guests. Mrs. William White and her committee prepared the menu, which consisted of: grapefruit juice, baked ham, mashed potatoes, stewed tomatoes, apple sauce, celery, olives, pickles, radishes, rolls, butter, ice cream and strawberries, coffee.

Following the dinner Miss Elizabeth Smith, the girls' coach, made a few remarks, after which the awards were given. Letters, both for varsity and junior varsity, were given, and also certificates. Some of the girls received certificates with one or two stars, indicating they had received letters in previous years. Miss Helen Schmidt, a member of the junior high school faculty, and instructor for the cheer leaders, was also present.

The group retired to the auditorium for entertainment, which was in charge of "Connie" Clapham. The program was as follows: dance, Janet Stephenson, accompanied by Mrs. William Boyd; piano selections, "Forever and Ever," "Red Roses for a Blue Lady" and "My Hero," Ann Ardrey; dance duet, Dorothy Keers and Jacqueline Gilardi, accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Keers; comic quartette, with a variety of entertainment, "Connie" Clapham, Jacqueline Gilardi, Dorothy Keers and Mary Lou Bock, accompanied by Mrs. Boyd. A mock fashion show was staged by several of the girls. The narrator was "Connie" Clapham. Group singing was enjoyed.

Yacht Club Improvements Are Moving At Fast Rate

With a float firmly anchored offshore, bulkheads completed, a walk erected to the float, and improvements moving forward at a fast pace, both to the interior and exterior of the new club house, the Bristol Yacht Club is just about set for a season of real activity. Electric power for indoor and outdoor lighting was turned on a few days ago.

In a fun race among club members, held on the Delaware over the week-end, nine duster class sailboats participated. Two brothers, Joseph and John Cherubini, finished in first and second place, respectively.

Eleven members of the club have entered in the Cooper River Duster Regatta, scheduled for this week-end at Camden, N. J.

PENNDEL

Mr. and Mrs. John Vogt spent the week-end at their summer home at Harvey Cedars, N. J.

Miss Mary Keating, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Edward Keating and sons "Bobby" and Richard, of New York, N. Y., were week-end visitors of Mrs. Patrick Keating.

Discuss Plans For A Scout Camping Trip

CROYDON, June 2—On Tuesday evening the two age groups of Croydon Girl Scout Troop 7 held a combined meeting. Plans were discussed for their forthcoming camping trip. Plans are also being made to visit James Sutton, of Bridgewater, who will show the girls his display of antique automobiles.

The highlight of the evening was a visit of home economists who gave the girls a demonstration on both indoor and outdoor cookery. The platters used for the demonstration were given out to 'lucky' girls whose names were drawn from a box. Sixty-three girls and four leaders attended.

The girls who paraded on Memorial Day numbered 44.

FRANKLIN A. C. GOES INTO THIRD PLACE IN LEAGUE

Franklin A. C. leaped into third place in the Bristol Suburban Softball circuit by winning over the Jefferson A. C., 4-2, last evening on Memorial Park field.

Two runs in each the first and fifth innings gave the Franklin team the triumph. Jefferson had several opportunities to tie the score but were helpless in the pinches.

"Reggie" Gerome won his third mound win for the Franklin team while "Willie" Salerno was the losing moundsman. Both hurlers allowed seven safe blows.

Franklin scored its first pair of Markers after two were out. Sagolla and Capello were on base as the result of a walk and a fielder's choice. Bert Barbetta singled home the first run on an overthrow by DeLisa the second run came over.

The winning runs were shoved over in the fifth on a walk to Gerome, a triple by Manager Tony Capello and a fielder's choice on which Capello beat Ciotti's throw to the plate.

Doubles by Peltz and Salerno gave Jefferson a run in the third while in the fifth, DeLisa walked and Hunter and Peltz had base hits. Two were still on base when Gerome retired Salerno and Ferraro for the final outs of the inning.

Jefferson had three on in the sixth when Bert Barbetta came up with a fast double-play to end a rally. In the final frame, Cauti opened with a double but could not be advanced.

ROHM & HAAS TEN DEFEATS LEEDOM'S

The Rohm & Haas ten swamped the Leedom's team in a Bristol Industrial Softball League game on the Hunter-Wilson field last evening. Final score was 14-4.

Ten big runs in the first frame gave the plastic-makers a commanding lead which was never relinquished. The rug-makers came back in the second to score three times but the chemical mixers retaliated with three in their half of the inning.

"Ed" Sullivan and Horace Tranter led the winners at the plate with three out of four each.

The Leedom team made but four hits off the delivery of Jack Spencer who also fanned three batters.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Borough of Hulmeville, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, will receive sealed bids for the purchase of 25 general obligation coupon Street Improvement Bonds, in the denomination of $1,000 each, aggregating $25,000 bearing interest at a rate to be named by the bidder or bidders in multiples of one-eighth of one per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually on June 15 and December 15. Bids will be received for the entire issue at any one rate of interest but no bid combining two different rates of interest will be accepted. Said bonds and the interest thereon will be payable without deductions for any tax or taxes, except succession or inheritance taxes, now or hereafter levied or assessed thereon under any present or future law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, all of which taxes the Borough of Hulmeville assumes and agrees to pay. The bonds will be sold to the highest responsible bidder, provided such bid is not less than par and accrued interest.

The highest responsible bidder shall be the one who, having complied with the conditions of sale, offers to take the whole amount of the issue at the lowest interest cost to the municipality, which shall be determined by deducting from the total amount of interest to be paid on account of such bonds during the life thereof the amount of premium offered, if any, over and above the face amount of the issue.

The bonds will be dated June 15, 1949, may be registered as to principal only and will mature in numerical order as follows: $2,000 on June 15, 1950, and $2,000 on June 15 each year thereafter up to and including June 15, 1961; then $1,000 on June 15, 1962.

Every bid should be addressed to Harriet W. Bunting Black, Secretary, Council Chambers, Trenton Avenue, Hulmeville, Pennsylvania, and shall be placed in a sealed envelope sufficiently labeled to indicate that it is a bid for the bonds of this issue, before being delivered to the aforesaid Secretary. Bids will be received up to 8:00 o'clock p. m., D.S.T. on the 6th day of June 1949, at which time they will be publicly opened at the aforementioned address by the secretary.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check or Treasurer's check drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the Borough of Hulmeville or a sum of money, equal to two per centum of the face amount of the bonds, as security against any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. The deposit of each unsuccessful bidder will be returned immediately upon the award of the bonds or the rejection of all bids. In the case of the successful bidder, the deposit will be held by the Treasurer and will be applied to the purchase price when the bonds are actually delivered and paid for.

These obligations will be payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes.

The enactment, at any time prior to the delivery of the bonds, of Federal legislation which in terms, by the repeal or omission of exemptions or otherwise, subjects to a Federal income tax the interest on bonds of a class or character which includes these bonds, will at the election of the purchaser, relieve the purchaser from his obligations under the terms of the contract of sale and entitle the purchaser to the return of the amount deposited with the bid.

These bonds are issued subject to the favorable opinion of Messrs. Townsend, Elliott & Munson, Philadelphia, Pa., which will be delivered free of charge to the purchaser only if and after the proceedings authorizing the issuance thereof have been approved by the Department of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

For further information apply to the undersigned.

By order of the Borough of Hulmeville.

Borough Secretary

Bucks County Playhouse To Open; To Star Kay Francis

NEW HOPE, June 2 — The gala premiere of the Bucks County Playhouse operated by producer Theron Bamberger, here, will occur Friday evening when glamorous Kay Francis, favorite of stage and screen, will be seen as the star of "Let Us Be Gay," the sophisticated comedy by Rachel Crothers, which the late Burns Mantle called one of the ten best of its presentation year. This is the tenth year that the Playhouse on the picturesque banks of the Delaware will offer summer entertainment. In those years it has gained renown as one of the outstanding professional theatres on the "straw-hat" circuit. As usual the season will last 15 weeks with a different play each week, and distinguished Broadway stars in each production.

"Let Us Be Gay" will run for 11 performances through Saturday evening, June 11, with three matinees, on June 4, 8th, and 11th. Subsequent plays will run one week only.

Luminaries of the stage and literary world, many of whom reside in nearby communities of famous Bucks County, will attend the premiere, Friday night. Among the celebrities who have made reservations for the first performance are Ezra Stone, Sylvia Sidney, Justin Herman (author and producer of the motion picture "The Lambertville Story"), Paul Whiteman, Kenyon Nicholson, Tony Williams, George S. Kaufman, Kitty Carlisle, Moss Hart, Don Walker, Margaret Mullen, John Root, Mrs. John Matthews, Jr. (radio's Stella Dallas), and many others.

Mr. Bamberger has assembled a distinguished Broadway cast which includes, besides Kay Francis, Joel Ashley, Viola Roache, June Dayton, Lewis Martin, Henry Jones, Dorothy Elder, Michael Sivy, Ruth White and St. Clair Bayfield, who incidentally, acted his present role in the original Broadway production.

"I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ" (Rom 1:16)

Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel because the Gospel of the Lord Jesus ha dsaved him from the guilt and penalty of his own sin. He recognized in the Gospel the redeeming love of God revealed to men through the cross of Jesus Christ. He could never be ashamed of such love—he could never despise such a Savior. Even in Rome with all of its human power of his day, Paul had to take the simple message of salvation through the finished work of Jesus. He was proud of the Gospel. Proud that he was saved by it. Proud that he could offer it freely without money and without price to all who believe and receive its message.

BENSALEM GIRLS WIN LOWER BUCKS SOFTBALL CROWN

NEWTOWN, June 2 — Bensalem Township High School girls' softball team won the Lower Bucks County championship yesterday with an 8-5 win over the Council Rock High School team.

It was the seventh straight win for Coach Annetta Reber's lassies, they beating every team in the loop. The league was composed of Langhorne, Bristol, Bristol Township, Southampton, Pennsbury, Council Rock, New Hope, and Bensalem.

Last season, Bensalem was runner-up to the Langhorne High School girls.

Bensalem scored three times to take the lead in the first inning yesterday and at the end of the third had a 5-1 lead. Two tallies in the sixth clinched the tilt for the Owlettes.

Coach Reber used the following in her lineup: Ruth Matlack, p; Margaret Hamilton, ss; Anna Rita Mikilatis, cf; Margaret Kee, 1b; Dolores Tilley, 3b; Laura Ely, lf; Ann Achs, c; Betty Lou Uslin, rf; Jacqueline Herring, sf; Joan Dettmer, 2b; Mary Ann Martin, 2b.

Council Rock's lineup was as follows: Worthington, 1b; Thompson, 3b; Sterner, lf; Appleton, lf; Bellmeyer, cf; M. Lupp, sf; Banner, p; Usilton, p; B. Lupp, 2b; Otts, rf; Yamoto, c; H. Sterner, ss.

Score by Innings:

Council Rock	1	0	0	1	0	2	1	—	5

SALLUSTIO NARROWLY MISSES HALL OF FAME

Angelo Sallustio, who hurled for St. Ann's A. A. in the Bristol Suburban Baseball League last season, recently pitched the 54th Engineers to a 4-0 victory over the 1st Battalion, 2nd Cavalry, at Vaihingen, Germany.

In pitching his shutout, Sallustio narrowly missed the mythical hall of fame, allowing the losers but one hit. That bingle was a single by Joe Tokach in the second inning.

Sallustio also had three hits in the game and fanned six batters. He did not issue a pass.

Sallustio, who resides on Jefferson Avenue, has a brother, Joseph, who has played third base for the "Saints" for the past three seasons. While in the local circuit last season, Angelo won three and lost one.

SCORDIA SIGNS McGERR TO PITCH

Manager John "Spike" Scordia is still attempting to strengthen the pitching staff of the St. Ann's A. A. team in the Trenton Industrial League. Last evening, Scordia announced the signing of William "Bill" McGerr, who recently returned after receiving a try-out at Lexington, North Carolina.

It is most likely that Scordia will use McGerr on the hill against the Micharski team tomorrow at Wetzel field, Trenton.

The "Saints" have won three straight games in the loop and are fighting for top position. They are still behind in schedule, having entered the loop after two weeks of playing had elapsed.

HIBERNIANS WIN

The Hibernians nosed out the Lewis Lodge of Elks, 8-7, last evening in a Suburban League contest on Leedom's field. The Hibs had the lead from the start, at one time enjoying an 8-2 edge. The Elks rallied but fell one run short of deadlocking the score.
